Inventory, Levels of Service, and Equity Analysis

Which areas in the City (geographic or market segments) are underserved?

Commerce City CO North/South Subareas

Legend

C3 Parks Alt Pro Parks North Subarea South Subarea C3 City Boundary

Pedestrian Zones and Walkable Access

8/80 Rule

Analysis shows that most Commerce City residents (92%) are within walking distance of outdoor recreation opportunities

Walkable Access (10 minutes)

NRPA 2023 Agency Performance Benchmarks

(50,000 – 99,999)

Outdoor Facility	Agencies Offering This Facility	Median Residents per Facility	Commerce City Current Quantity*	Commerce City Residents per Facility	Need to Meet NRPA Median
Playgrounds	95%	3,779	21	3,323	0
Basketball Courts	86%	8,790	14	4,985	0
Tennis Courts	76%	5,577	2	34,895	14
Pickleball Courts	31%	11,150	0	N/A	6
Diamond Fields: Multipurpose	79%	7,237	11	6,344	0
Rectangular Fields: Multipurpose	69%	13,244	12	5,816	0

Add Elements for Working with Safety / Unhoused Populations

- ▲ Crime Prevention through Environment Design (CPTED) – Lighting, call boxes, restrooms management, visual access
- ▲ More rangers and increased patrols
- ▲ Positive activation – More programming and “official business”
- ▲ Partner with other agencies – City-wide efforts

Role in Planning for Disaster Preparedness /Environmental Resiliency

- ▶ Parks, recreation, trails, and open space play a vital role in the physical, economic, social, and emotional health of the community.
- ▶ Essential services - going forward it is imperative to make sure those services are provided at all times - especially in times of disaster.
- ▶ Services and activities are crucial to alleviate boredom, improve mental health, reduce stress, build resiliency, and provide places for physical and social activities.
- ▶ Key aspect for returning to “normalcy” after an event.

Floods / Tornadoes / Wildfires / Pandemics

Key Capital Findings – Priority Needs

Outdoor Event Spaces and Cultural Activities

Splashpads and Pools

Pickleball and Tennis Courts

Multi-use Turf Fields (Soccer)

Potential Synthetic Turf additions

Dog Parks

Community Gardens

Expand Bison Ridge

Potential future additional indoor space with growth

Key Capital Findings - Connections

Better connections between recreation centers and neighborhoods

8 80 and Complete Streets

Regional Trails

- Opportunities for greater north/south connectivity in the City (Many planned but need implementation)
- Desire for east/ west corridor along United Power Corridor which parallels 104th Ave. between I-76 and Tower Road.
- Improved connection to Sand Creek Greenway

Key Findings - Buffalo Run Golf Course

- ▲ Infrastructure needs update
- ▲ Inconsistent Course Conditions / Unique
- ▲ Greens are good (most important to golfers)
- ▲ Characteristics of a “Links Course”
- ▲ Align marketing with new Clubhouse
- ▲ High interest in golf programs (all ages)
- ▲ Interest expressed in adding elements and Par 3
- ▲ More non-golf events in the clubhouse (expansion) and at golf course

Key Opportunities

- ▲ Alternative transportation and connectivity
- ▲ More Senior Center/Active Adult space - north
- ▲ Need for office and maintenance space
- ▲ Additional technology / centralized processes
- ▲ Increase youth and older adult programs
  - Innovative youth sports and intro programs
  - After-school programs
  - Enhanced programming for seniors at Bison Ridge

Key Opportunities

- ▲ Need for additional marketing / communications
- ▲ Allocate land for future development with growth
- ▲ Blend North and South with future vision
- ▲ Enhance collaboration with developers and partners
- ▲ Growing need to address environmental challenges
- ▲ Role in stormwater management / carbon sequestration / warming / trees / nature

Additional Opportunities – Programs and Operations

- ▲ More cultural programming (celebrate diversity and indigenous populations)
- ▲ More special events / community building
- ▲ Better Access to Rocky Mountain Arsenal Refuge
- ▲ Better Wi-Fi connectivity in parks and centers
- ▲ United vision for growing City
- ▲ More partnerships with KSE for turf fields
- ▲ Opportunities to partner with Urban Renewal and other for-profit / non-profit developments
