Motion to Evaluate Development Options for 112th Avenue Corridor

A motion was made by Council Member Ford, seconded by Council Member Teter, to direct the City Manager to identify and present options for the development of 112th Avenue, from East Chambers Road westward toward the Bison Ridge Recreation Center and schedule for the first regular Council meeting in November. These options should include potential design concepts, cost estimates, and an anticipated project timeline. Community engagement opportunities and alignment with existing transportation and infrastructure plans should also be considered in the evaluation. The presentation shall include a cost analysis to make the roadway possible in its current state to make it passable and to see what it would take to make the roadway a straightaway instead of hairpin turns.
