Amended Scope of Services

CONTRACTOR: Felsburg, Holt & Ullevig (FHU)

LOCATION(S) OF SERVICES: Commerce City Civic Center, 7887 E 60th Avenue,
Commerce City, CO 80022

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES:

The City seeks to apply for additional grant funding to address documented City needs associated with service delivery and the goals of City Council without utilizing municipal tax dollars or taking away funds from other projects. The Contractor will be responsible for writing grant applications focused on transportation.

Task: Grant Writing

Expectations: The Contractor shall write and apply for grants approved by City staff.

Meeting(s): There will be ongoing meetings with City staff, scheduled by City staff.

Deliverables:

- a. Write and apply for all grants approved by City staff by deadlines.
  - i. When the City identifies a grant they would like Contractor to pursue, Contractor will send an estimated quote on the number of hours and the total cost necessary to complete the specific grant application. The City employee who occupies the role of Grant and Special Projects Manager and oversees grant efforts (“Grants Manager”) will give the Contractor written approval to continue with application. This will allow the City to prioritize specific grant opportunities.
  - ii. After Contractor is given approval to proceed, an initial meeting will be scheduled with Contractor, Grants Manager, the City’s subject matter expert who will be acting as the department project manager for each respective grant and any other individuals necessary to develop the grant application timeline and roles. This meeting may occur virtually.
  - iii. When communicating with the Department Project Manager to gather materials, the Grants Manager shall be included in all communications to ensure a timely response and the necessary materials are provided.
  - iv. Virtual application meetings will be held bi-weekly, as needed, leading up to the submission of any application.
  - v. Contractor shall provide a final draft of the application to City staff, no less than three business days ahead of the deadline for final approval by City staff before the submission of any application.
- b. Contractor shall maintain a master list of all grants applied for and the award status.
- c. After the final submission of any application, Contractor will provide a copy of the submitted application and any supplemental documents to Grants Manager for records management.

WHEN: Contractor shall perform all services to the satisfaction of the City up to Dec. 31, 2026.

COST: Under no circumstances shall the compensation due and owing to the Contractor for performance of the Services described herein exceed a sum total of FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS AND NO CENTS ($400,000). The table below outlines hourly rates for services by Contractor to write grant applications.
