

City of Commerce City, Colorado

Proclamation

WHEREAS, military service is symbolic of the American character and our determination to meet our challenges at home and abroad; and

WHEREAS, the freedom and security that we enjoy today are direct results of the blood shed and continued vigilance given by the United States Armed Forces over the history of our great nation; and

WHEREAS, veterans of wars present and past have served and continued to serve with honor, courage, and commitment and ought to be honored and recognized for the sacrifices they have made to protect our freedom; and

WHEREAS, many of our 1968 Adams City High School Alumni, and other graduates of Adams City High School, served our country with courage, honor, and valor; and

WHEREAS, through their steadfast defense of America's ideals, our Veteran Alumni members have ensured our country still stands strong, our founding principles still shine, and nations around the world know the blessings of freedom

WHEREAS, these patriots continuing to make contributions to their communities in their civilian life as teachers, doctors, and public servants is a testament to their dedication to the welfare of our country.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the City Council of Commerce City proclaims June 23, 2018 as the Adams City High School Class of 1986 Alumni Veteran's Day and encourage residents to recognize the sacrifices of our men and women who served in the Armed Forces.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal to be affixed on the fourth day of June 2018.
