

Citizen Commendation

Mykala Minges

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Mykala Minges who risked life and personal injury in rendering aid to a fellow citizen. On Sept. 2, 2014, reports of a reckless driver on 104th Avenue was initially suspected as a DUI, with reports of the vehicle hitting cones within the work zone, crossing over travel lanes, and even leaving the paved surface. Ms. Minges and other citizens recognized something more serious was wrong with the male driver; she placed her truck adjacent to the errant driver, creating a box with another citizen around the vehicle. These actions enabled responders to provide aid for the driver's medical issue and prevent serious injuries from occurring.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Citizen Commendation

James Miller

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends James Miller who risked life and personal injury in rendering aid to a fellow citizen. On Sept. 2, 2014, reports of a reckless driver on 104th Avenue was initially suspected as a DUI, with reports of the vehicle hitting cones within the work zone, crossing over travel lanes, and even leaving the paved surface. Mr. Miller and other citizens recognized something more serious was wrong with the male driver. From following the vehicle to providing updates to dispatch, these actions enabled responders to provide aid for the driver's medical issue and prevent serious injuries from occurring.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Citizen Commendation

Everett Johnston

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Everett Johnston who risked life and personal injury in rendering aid to a fellow citizen. On Sept. 2, 2014, reports of a reckless driver on 104th Avenue was initially suspected as a DUI, with reports of the vehicle hitting cones within the work zone, crossing over travel lanes, and even leaving the paved surface. Mr. Johnston and other citizens recognized something more serious was wrong with the male driver. From following the vehicle to providing updates to dispatch, these actions enabled responders to provide aid for the driver's medical issue and prevent serious injuries from occurring.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Citizen Commendation

Ceceila Johnston

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Ceceila Johnston who risked life and personal injury in rendering aid to a fellow citizen. On Sept. 2, 2014, reports of a reckless driver on 104th Avenue was initially suspected as a DUI, with reports of the vehicle hitting cones within the work zone, crossing over travel lanes, and even leaving the paved surface. Ms. Johnston and other citizens recognized something more serious was wrong with the male driver. From following the vehicle to providing updates to dispatch, these actions enabled responders to provide aid for the driver's medical issue and prevent serious injuries from occurring.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Citizen Commendation

Charles Hoffman

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Charles Hoffman who risked life and personal injury in rendering aid to a fellow citizen. On Sept. 2, 2014, reports of a reckless driver on 104th Avenue was initially suspected as a DUI, with reports of the vehicle hitting cones within the work zone, crossing over travel lanes, and even leaving the paved surface. Mr. Hoffman and other citizens recognized something more serious was wrong with the male driver. From following the vehicle to providing updates to dispatch, these actions enabled responders to provide aid for the driver's medical issue and prevent serious injuries from occurring.

Troy Smith
SIGNATURE

11/17/14
DATE

Citizen Commendation

Eleni Slaughter

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Eleni Slaughter for the prompt and unselfish act of rendering aid and assistance to a fellow citizen that resulted in the saving of a life. On July 31, 2014, a two-year-old grocery shopping with her mother swallowed several coins and began to choke. Recognizing the need for medical attention, Ms. Slaughter and Ms. Lucas - unknown to each other prior to the incident - used their collective CPR training to dislodge two quarters and a penny, saving the child's life.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Citizen Commendation

Judy Lucas

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Judy Lucas for the prompt and unselfish act of rendering aid and assistance to a fellow citizen that resulted in the saving of a life. On July 31, 2014, a two-year-old grocery shopping with her mother swallowed several coins and began to choke. Recognizing the need for medical attention, Ms. Lucas and Ms. Slaughter - unknown to each other prior to the incident - used their collective CPR training to dislodge two quarters and a penny, saving the child's life.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Commerce
CITY
POLICE
DEPARTMENT

Citizen Commendation

Walter Oneal

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Walter Oneal for his civic engagement and support in resolving an outstanding case. Mr. Oneal's willingness to share information about a first degree burglary in the 7200 block of Monaco Street led to a quality police investigation and the apprehension of suspects in December 2013.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Commerce
CITY
POLICE
DEPARTMENT

Citizen Commendation

David Schwalm

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends David Schwalm for risking life and personal injury to assist a police officer. On Sept. 2, 2014, Officer Zamora was pursuing a well-known and elusive suspect, who failed to stop after the officer made contact. A foot chase ensued. Mr. Schwalm observed the interaction and placed his vehicle into the suspect's path to prevent an escape. During the arrest, an associate of the suspect began approaching. Mr. Schwalm moved his vehicle to protect the officer and also got out of his car to provide an additional presence while the associate lingered. Without Mr. Schwalm's assistance, the safety of our officer would have remained at risk.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Citizen Commendation

Bryson Bragaw

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Bryson Bragaw for risking life and personal injury to render aid to fellow citizens. On Jan. 1, 2014, officers responded to an emergency tone alert of a man with a gun in the 11400 block of Kenton Street in a domestic dispute involving a female and two children. Mr. Bragaw attempted to assist the victims. He successfully removed the children from the home and called 911 prior to the officers subduing the suspect.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE

Citizen Commendation

Christian Widebeck

The Commerce City Police Department hereby commends Christian Widebeck who risked life and personal injury in rendering aid to a fellow citizen. On Sept. 2, 2014, reports of a reckless driver on 104th Avenue was initially suspected as a DUI, with reports of the vehicle hitting cones within the work zone, crossing over travel lanes, and even leaving the paved surface. Mr. Widebeck and other citizens recognized something more serious was wrong with the male driver; he placed his truck in front of the errant driver, allowing the vehicle to strike his and come to a stop. These actions enabled responders to provide aid for the driver's medical issue and prevent serious injuries from occurring.

Tracy Smith

SIGNATURE

11/17/14

DATE