Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Early Childhood Partnership of Adams County and organizations nationwide are recognizing Early Care and Education Providers on this day; and

WHEREAS, the early care and education system supports children's growth, development, and educational advancement while creating positive economic impacts for families and communities; and

WHEREAS, early care and education providers are essential to the health of our communities by fostering safe and welcoming spaces, supporting working families, and creating enriching environments where children develop lifelong skills; and

WHEREAS, early care and education providers work in various settings, including centers, family childcare homes, and preschools, offering families a choice in the type of care that works best for them and their child; and

WHEREAS, support for affordable, accessible, high-quality early care and education represents a worthy commitment to help families work, support children's healthy development and learning, and keep our economy growing.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Mayor Douglas, on behalf of the City of Commerce City, hereby hereby proclaim May 8, 2026, as Provider Appreciation Day in Commerce City, and urge all citizens to recognize early care and education providers for their important work and how valuable they are to our communities.
