

Commerce City and Brighton Police Collaboration

Commerce City and Brighton Police Collaboration

---

- As community policing has evolved across America the notion of partnerships has grown into a much broader concept, to include regional collaboration among public safety service providers.

Commerce City and Brighton Police Collaboration

---

- Prairie View High School

- Victim Services 2013 to 2014 successes:

- ✓ 22% increase in service to VRA crime victims
- ✓ 34% increase overall in victims served
- ✓ 75% Increase in callout response

Commerce City and Brighton Police Collaboration

---

- SWAT
  - At your direction Chief Blackhurst and Chief Smith have developed a draft IGA for both City Councils consideration.

Commerce City and Brighton Police Collaboration

---

- IGA Highlights
  - Sharing of in-kind services, equipment, personnel and special assets to create a shared SWAT Team
  - The Chief of Police in the jurisdiction where the incident is occurring shall be in command of the SWAT Team
  - Goal to establish team make up of 60% CCPD – 40% BPD; transition over time
  - Special asset cost 60% CCPD – 40% BPD

Commerce City and Brighton Police Collaboration

---

- Questions & Feedback

