Commerce City, CO 80022

1. Call To Order/Roll Call

Meeting was called to order at 6:03pm.

Present: Councilmember Douglas, Jen Martin, Jackie Riggs-Gonzales, Nick Gonzales, Omar Lozano, Augusta Jonhart, Deana Hall, Jade Humphries-Graves, Emily Perez, and Carlos Jimenez.

Absent: Mayor Pro Tem, Ronna Sanchez, Tyler Vitello, and Kelly Reyos

2. Community Time

a. Welcome New Members: Emily & Carlos

Everyone introduced themselves and shared what they were excited about for spring. Councilmember Douglas, Deana Hall & staff shared about the upcoming Women's History Month celebration for DEI Commission. They are showing League of their Own at Bison Ridge on Sunday, 3/23 at 2pm. All are welcome!

3. Approval of Minutes

Min 25-069

February Meeting Minutes

Jackie moved to approve February's meeting minutes. Nick seconded the motion, which was approved unanimously.

4. Grants & Finance Monthly Update

Updates were given by staff liaison that were sent from Ronna. QCF and SCFD grants have been submitted.

5. Subcommittee Reports

Overview of subcommittee structure was given to new members.

a. Music in the Park

All four bands, locations, dates are secured as well as stage & sound. City will offer free food (main course & dessert) and resources at all four events.

b. Public Art & Art Exhibitions

Overview of two open art calls were shared, as well as the public art selection process. The committee shared that they have a lot of ideas and is now in the process of editing those big ideas. Councilmember Douglas offered the idea of selling artwork for 50% proceeds.

i. Update on Sand Creek Greenway Installment

The donated artwork from Sand Creek Regional Greenway was approved for installation on 3/17. Contracts are being sent, and installation will start once paperwork is complete. Sand Creek and staff will work together to organize a celebration for the artists and families.

ii. Master Plan Adjustments

Staff has identified some gaps in the public art master plan, most notably an opportunity to improve the funding mechanism. Staff and Cultural Council members will work together in the coming months to edit the master plan and propose to City Council for approval.

c. Community Engagement & Partnerships

This committee also shared they have big visions and are now in the editing phase. The committee asked for input on their involvement in Juneteenth for this year. After brainstorming and discussion, the group looked at the budget to realize what they were able to offer.

Jen moved to allocate $150 towards sponsoring the spades tournament at Juneteenth, which would cover prizes for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place. Deana seconded the motion, which was approved unanimously.

The group expressed finding grant funding for future years to increase their outreach capabilities.

Staff will take inventory of existing swag.

Augusta expressed how they liked having speakers and talking through black history in Commerce City at that event, and hope they bring it back. Councilmember Douglas offered the idea of honoring Edna Anderson, a member of one of the first black families here in the city.

6. New Business

The group asked about removing the Christmas banners from around the city.

7. Adjourn

Meeting was adjourned at 7:39pm.

Subcommittee Meetings will take place immediately following the meeting.

Emily joined the Music in the Park committee, and Carlos joined the Public Art & Art Exhibitions committee.
