BACKGROUND/REQUEST

Sponsorship - Kids First Healthcare Annual Breakfast

Kids First Health Care provides health care services for infants, children and teens from birth to age 21 at the Commerce City clinic.

Since establishing Colorado's first school-based health center in 1978, they have been committed to keeping our community's most vulnerable and at-risk children healthy, in school, and ready to learn. Through this commitment, along with the support of our generous funders, we have transformed thousands of young lives.

Co-Sponsor: Kristi Douglas

Health Care for Children Year–Round

Kids First Health Care provides health care services for infants, children and teens from birth to age 21 at the Commerce City clinic. The Commerce City location is accepting new patients and has no zip code requirements. Kids First also helps families apply for and renew health insurance coverage for children through the Health First CO (Medicaid) and CHP+ programs. For an appointment or more information, please call 303-289-1086.
