Thanks and great news! I'll plan on attending Study Session.

Of course - Out of the 34 jurisdictions we cover; Boulder City, Boulder County, Westminster, Louisville, Golden and Superior adopted the sprinkler mandates. Of which, Westminster and potentially (but not likely) Superior are up for code adoption this year. Centennial, Lone Tree and Castle Pines adopted a mandatory option (only 1 home of the over 280+ that were built in the past 3 years under the option opted to install sprinklers. That homeowner is a fire fighter who actively lobbies for the sprinkler mandate - not a legitimate consumer.) Please let me know if I can help any further.
