

Updates from Suncor Energy (U.S.A.) Inc.:

- Refinery Notifications:
 - Beginning June 1, you can start receiving notifications in English and Spanish about the Commerce City Refinery.
 - Text SUNCOR to 888777 or visit Suncor.com/CCRSignUp to sign up now.
- Refinery Maintenance:
 - Planned maintenance is underway at the refinery.
 - As we take our operating units out of service, you may see increased flaring and hear additional noise in the area.
 - Learn more about flaring and maintenance activities at Suncor.com/Colorado.
- Refinery Improvement Plan:
 - As a part of the 2020 settlement agreement with the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment (CDPHE), the refinery engaged Kearney – an independent, third-party expert – to investigate the root cause of past emissions exceedances and identify refinery improvement opportunities.
 - You can view Kearney’s report and our full Improvement Plan at Suncor.com/ccr-report.
- Community Air Monitoring:
 - In response to community feedback, Suncor Energy (U.S.A.) Inc. is taking proactive steps to enhance air monitoring in the Commerce City and North Denver area.
 - Get the latest information at Suncor.com/Colorado and sign up to attend a public meeting.
 - Meetings will be held in English and Spanish.
- Community Investment:
 - In response to the Boulder King Soopers tragedy, Suncor made a gift to the Colorado Healing Fund to support the needs of affected victims, families and community members.
 - We renewed our funding to support critical operations and programming at the Suncor Boys & Girls Club. In May we’ll launch a fundraising campaign for Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Denver through fuel sales at our retail sites.
 - In our third year, we’re proud to sponsor the Adams County Mayors & Commissioners Youth Awards, recognizing deserving teens in Commerce City and across Adams County making positive change in their lives.
