Sec. 2-2003. - Time of adjournment.

- (a) Adjournment. The city council shall adjourn upon approval of a motion to adjourn or without motion upon the conclusion of business.
- (b) Automatic adjournment. All regular and special meetings and study sessions of the city council shall adjourn automatically ~~four and one half (4½) hours after the commencement of the meeting or study session at 10:30 p.m.~~ if not adjourned by such time. ~~For purposes of this section, a regular or special meeting or study session held consecutively on the same day shall be treated as the same meeting.~~ At or prior to the time of adjournment, council must adjourn but may consider only a motion to extend the meeting or a motion to schedule a special meeting.
- (c) Extension. By motion approved by a majority of the members present, a meeting or study session may be extended beyond the automatic adjournment ~~in thirty (30) minute increments~~ for a length of time as stated in the motion.
- (d) Effect of automatic adjournment. Unless the city council votes to schedule a special meeting to consider remaining business, any scheduled agenda item not considered and any matter under consideration at the time of adjournment shall be continued automatically to the next regular meeting or study session, as appropriate, at such point on the next agenda as determined by the city manager.
