Ordinance 2048: The City of Commerce City request several amendments to the marijuana regulations found in the Land Development Code (LDC): Mr. Timms presented the staff report and presentation including the Development Review Team’s recommendation for approval. He noted that study sessions were held with Council where staff was directed to research and prepare regulations concerning recreational marijuana. As a result, updates to the LDC regarding both medical and recreational marijuana are required.

In response to questions by the commission, staff explained there are a very limited number of locations in the city where retail marijuana businesses would be allowed within commercial districts.
