3. New Business

Members reflected back on their first year after the commission was established in 2017. Looking ahead, members expressed interest in continuing to promote a senior resource guide, create promotional content to educate residents of city-happenings, partner with local agencies and non-profits, and creating a bridge between the Senior Center and the Senior Commission.

4. Other Business

Members gave feedback on the neighborhood outreach event at Pioneer Park. Overall, great turnout. There was a diverse presence of nonprofits and city groups. Suggested feedback for improvements, ensure tables are not at the very end to ensure maximum exposure by all attendees.
