Matt Hader, Deputy City Attorney, introduced the case and introduced staff presenting the case.

Caitlin Hasenbalg Long, City Planner, notified commissioners that the notice by placard on the property did not occur as required by our Land Development Code, section 21-3180. Despite proper notice by mail and publication, the city is recommending that the case be continued until next Tuesday, January 14, to allow for the required placard notice on the property to occur.

Chairman Popiel called for a motion.

Motion made by Commissioner Cammack: I move to continue the public hearing for case Z-953-18-20, requesting rezoning of the property at E 88th Avenue and Tower Road, to Tuesday, January 14, 2020, at 6:00pm, to allow for compliance with the requirement of notice by placard consistent with LDC Section 21-3180.
