Proclamation recognizing John Howard's service to Commerce City

Summary and Background Information :

Director of Information Technology John Howard announced his retirement from the City of Commerce City, effective March 13, 2015. Mr. Howard has spent nearly 40 years serving the community, in a variety of roles. From a police officer to engineer and information technology director. Mr. Howard has spent his career dedicated to improving the lives of residents within the city of which he was born. John coordinated the annual Memorial Day Parade, advocated for enhanced customer service techniques and served as the city's representative on the Colorado Communications & Utility Alliance.
