Proclamation Declaring November 30, 2018 as "Jaime White Day" in Commerce City

Summary and Background Information: Prairie View High School Principal Jaime White is a change agent within School District 27J, implementing new policies that increase instructional time and tackling long-standing issues such as tardy absences. School staff desire to honor Ms. White for her time and commitment to the students during an event later this month. Staff members approached High School Business Advisory Board Member and Councilman Steve Douglas to seek a proclamation to recognize her work. Council members will be invited to participate in the event, which is part of a larger scheduled winter assembly.
