April 6 Interview Discussion and Planning

Summary and Background Information: A discussion on the logistics of the upcoming April 6 board and commission interviews. Attached is the current schedule of confirmed applicants. More applications are expected to be received due to the high interest in the oil and gas application. Currently, all of Saturday, April 6 is filled up. Friday, April 5 in the evening has opened up for scheduling and so far three members have expressed availability for Friday evening time slots but have not confirmed exact times as of today.
