120th Avenue Corridor Preferred Alternative

Summary and Background Information:

Adams County received funding through DRCOG's Transportation Improvement Programs Fiscal Year 2022-2025 to perform a corridor study for E 120th Avenue from US85 to Tower Road. Commerce City supported the County's application. The County is intending to submit a RAISE grant application for further funding for design and ROW acquisition.

The attached presentation includes an overview of the project and a summary of the stakeholder coordination and community outreach. The presentation reviews the alternatives considered, the preferred alternative and the reasoning behind them. The presentation will also discuss next steps for the project. This presentation is intended to keep Commerce City's City Council informed of the status of the corridor study.
