

City of Commerce City, Colorado

Proclamation

WHEREAS, teachers are the bridges of knowledge from one generation to the next; and

WHEREAS, the teachers in our public schools reach out to every student regardless of race, religion, country of national origin, family background, physical or mental abilities, or social or economic disadvantage; and

WHEREAS, teachers provide opportunities that help prepare students for demands of higher education and the changing workplace environment; and

WHEREAS, teachers preserve and support our democratic way of life by helping students understand the principles that built this nation and how those freedoms serve as hope for people around the world; and

WHEREAS, teachers encourage and propel our young people to reach for achievements of the highest quality and challenge students to become life-long learners; and

WHEREAS most teachers perform this great service to society in relative obscurity, often through much personal sacrifice and limited recognition.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of Commerce City, Colorado hereby declares the week of May 4 –8, 2026 as Teacher Appreciation Week in Commerce City and encourages all residents to honor teachers who represent an investment in excellence and the future of our community.

CITY OF COMMERCE CITY, COLORADO

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Steve J. Douglas'. The signature is stylized and fluid, with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

---

Steve J. Douglas, Mayor