Latino Engagement Taskforce Cohort #5 Presentation

Summary and Background Information:

The Latino Engagement Taskforce (LET) is a city initiative dating back to December 2015 that assists Commerce City in building a stronger and more inclusive Latino community through constructive and solution-focused participation with Spanish-speaking community members. Local nonprofit Cultivando works with the city to develop, support, and facilitate the LET. The fifth LET cohort met between October 2023 and May 2024, with a graduation in June 2024.

Staff Responsible (Department Head): Jason Dennison, Director of Strategic partnerships
